ATHLETICS STARTED AT 'BIG SIX' RIGHT FROM THE JUMP AND GOT A LEAD IN THE EARLY INNINGS

POLO GROUNDS, New York, Oct. 11.—The New York Giants stood in their last line of entrenchments today, and with the "big gun," Christy Mathewson, wheeled into the breach and faced the storming attack of the Philadelphia Athletics, who need but one more victory to win the National League championship.

With heavy clouds drifting in from the north, there was a constant fear that rain would end the struggle. The Giants were the first on the field, setting practice. McGraw had told them that if they expected to stand today they would have to support Mathewson with their bats. Doyle and Merkle were the first to bat. Doyle made a hit, Merkle a double. The Athletics warmed up on the side line.

The new crematory was shut down Monday morning at 10 o'clock, and all the carts were ordered back to the old dumping grounds. Fires have been banked in two of the furnaces until repairs are completed on the two electric cranes that handle the grab baskets, and in the meantime the carts have been entirely quenched in order to prevent a fire. A grab basket was put in to replace the one that had burned out. The repairs on the cranes also have been ordered, and the carts will be replaced according to the statements made by Mayor Woodward Monday morning.

DEATH'S HAND FALLS ON
MR. CHARLES L. MOSES, SR.Funeral of Beloved Atlantian
Will Be Held at Turin
Sunday

Mr. Charles L. Moses, Sr., three times honored with the election as the representative of the Fourth congressional district of Georgia, died Friday night at 9:30 o'clock at the residence of his son, C. L. Moses, Jr., at 472 Cherokee avenue. He was fifty-seven years of age, and had been ill for several months.

Mr. Moses was a native of Georgia, and had lived practically his entire life on his farm in Coweta county. He was first elected to Congress from the Fourth district in 1890, and served in this capacity for three terms, retiring in 1896 to take up his farm life again. Mr. Moses came to Atlanta three years ago to live with his son.

In both private and public life Mr. Moses was a successful man. In his private life he was a successful farmer, and in his public life he was a successful legislator. He was a member of the Georgia legislature for three terms, and was a member of the Georgia senate for two terms. He was a member of the Georgia house of representatives for three terms, and was a member of the Georgia senate for two terms.

Mr. Moses was a brilliant orator, and while chairman of the pension commission of Georgia he was successful in securing the pension for many of the survivors of the Indian wars. He was a member of the Georgia legislature for three terms, and was a member of the Georgia senate for two terms.

PROVISION MADE FOR ROAD EXPERTPrison Board Adopts a New Policy in Interest of Better
Highways

Action designed to result in a thorough and more systematic development of the state's highways and bridges was taken by the state prison commission Friday afternoon when it adopted resolutions providing for the employment of a civil engineer or road expert to supervise road and bridge building.

Following is the resolution adopted:

"Whereas the commission has had under advisement the putting into effect of the act of the Georgia legislature of 1910, and the commission believing that it is desirable for the purpose of the act to employ a civil engineer or road expert to supervise the construction of the state's highways and bridges as provided by law.

"Third, That as our resources permit and the state's interest require, three additional supervisors and road experts be employed by the commission.

The following statement commenting on the new policy was issued by the commission:

"The prison commission, after carefully considering the question of employing road experts and engineers to supervise the construction of the state's highways and bridges, today adopted a resolution approving the policy and provided for the employment of a civil engineer or road expert to supervise the construction of the state's highways and bridges as provided by law.

JUDGE'S MARRIAGE VIEWS
SR. AT THE ALBANYSome Approve and Some Resent His Opinions on Child
Marriages

The recent statement of Judge W. D. Hills, who has been presiding at this week's divorce court, that if the ministers would pause in their denunciation of the man who sells a bad bottle of beer when he might be selling a bad bottle of beer, and pay more attention to the marriage they perform, the divorces would be decreased, has caused much comment among the ministry.

John E. White, pastor of the Second Baptist church, and Dr. Lincoln McConnell, of the Tabernacle, qualified by the position of the judge, who must see the divorce court for relief. Dr. McConnell suggests the publication of the marriage laws six months in advance of the wedding as an effective prevention of hasty marriages. He said that he would like to see the physical fitness of the parties to a marriage tested before the minister should be the inspector general.

Speaking of the minister, Dr. Jones said: "A preacher is almost helpless in the matter, or he must be insulting. When a couple present themselves to the minister, their license is legal evidence of their fitness. The minister has no right to know the circumstances. I doubt whether the minister should have any voice in the matter, and the state should not have the blame for divorces at all. The state should not have the blame for divorces at all. ## AMERICAN SHIPS MAY PAY TOLLS IN CANAL

Washington Believes Report That President Will Ask Re- peal of Exemption

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—Reports published in London that President Wilson soon would ask congress to repeal the exemption of American shipping from toll in the Panama canal, brought from the White House today the brief statement that any announcement of the administration's policy on that subject at this time was unauthorized. Officials declined to amplify that statement.

In other administration quarters,

However, the matter was expressed in a later such a repeal would be recommended to congress, but those who spoke disclaimed any official knowledge of President Wilson's intentions. Those closest to the president predicted that any announcement of policy would not be made until the legislation in congress was opportune.

Last negotiations over Great Britain's diplomatic protest against the alleged discrimination were conducted by former Ambassador Bryce last February. He relinquished his post here

FINED FOR FIGHTING

Will Phillips, an insurance solicitor, was fined $15.75 by Recorder Broyles Saturday morning for his part in an altercation on Friday afternoon, with A. G. Newsom, at the latter's place of business on Luckie street.

From the evidence in court, Phillips called at Mr. Newsom's automobile place with references to some insurance, and during his talk with Newsom he called the latter a liar. Newsom knocked him down, and then the two were separated. The case against Mr.

Newsom was dismissed.

NEW YORK REGISTRATION IS 188,066 ON FIRST DAY

NEW YORK, Oct. 11.—The first day's registration of voters in New York city was 188,066 with only two election districts unaccounted for, as against 190,055 in the greater city on the first registration day in 1909, when the last mayoralty campaign was on.

Three election inspectors in one district were arrested on charges of refusing to accept challenges made by watchers of the Honest Ballot association.

100-Mile Race At Motordrome

An elongated Marathon and a wire deal of the world's series game is the program for the first show at the local motordrome.

Four teams of two men each will race in the 100-mile event. They will start at 10 o'clock.

Phonetic and Swartz, Richards and Lewis, Braggman and Havel, Luther and Glen. In this race the riders will drive the track four times, provided their nerves and tires do not give out and under the same. Some shorter news will precede the big event, so that the boys can tune up their machines for the long drive.

SHANGHAI IS REAL STAR OF THE 1913 SERIES, IN COBB'S JUDGMENT

er who had tried to come back almost too soon.

The real star of the battle and of this series was the man who has participated, is without a doubt young Vally Schang, the Atlanta catcher. He himself drove four runs across the plate Friday, scored a fifth himself. Now, lest that quite a record for a youngster? In the third game of the series in New York he slammed out a homer, the first of the series in which he had hit a home run.

That is not all accomplished by this youngster. His following Friday was remarkable. It has been impossible to steal on him and his batting average is now .300. He has really took liberties with him when he has been in the game. Leslie Bush was serving the shots and was wild.

Schang's throw Friday with Murray on third, Cooper on first, runner on second, was a real gem. He hit the ball so hard that it drove him over the fence. He hit the ball so hard that it drove him over the fence. He hit the ball so hard that it drove him over the fence.

Inexperience Vandy's Trouble

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 11.—Just how much Vanderbilt has been weakened by the loss of seven star men from last season will be known Saturday afternoon when they meet Central of Kentucky in this city. The ruling of the S. I. A. A. assistant, the giant Cody has weakened the Commodore line and Coach McGraw also is having trouble finding another halfback of like ability. Prospects for another championship team at Vanderbilt are far from bright as a greater part of the new material is inexperienced. Central arrived here on Friday afternoon and both teams are in good condition.

Post-Season Games

CUBS DOWN BOX.

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 11.—Bert Humphreys' brilliant pitching and a terrific onslaught on Jim Scott's offense in the sixth and seventh innings Friday gave the Chicago Nationals the lead in the championship series, the third game going to the Cubs, 5 to 6. Four fielding blunders in the undoing of Scott and the general rout of the White Sox.

The attendance taxed the capacity of the West Side park. Official figures were: Attendance, 15,847; total receipts, $12,192; commission's share, $2,531; players' share, $9,661; each club, $4,830.

CARDS TAKE RECORD.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 11.—The Nationals, by timely hitting in the seventh, mixed with an error, won 4 to 1, the second game with the local Athletics. Friday to decide the city championship. The game, with no special features, was called at the end of the seventh inning because of darkness.

Rome Team Tied

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

CHATTANOOGA, Oct. 11.—The McCallie preparatory school of this city played a 6-0 tie here Friday with the Jacksonville High school. The game was a hot war. The Georgia boys held four downs on their two-yard line.

Cancel Sewanee Game

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 11.—The Southeastern Intercollegiate University football game, to have been played today at Sewanee, was canceled by the latter. Sewanee will play Marion County High School.

The Athletics suffered from one real "rotter" decision when they lost a run on account of Klem's error. Barry's smash to left in the second inning, it would have been easy for the Athletics' shortstop to negotiate three bases, but instead he was forced to pull up at second, as McKee interfered with him at first base. With two men on and time on the clock, Klem considered it his duty to watch the drive and had his back turned to the episode at first. Barry would have reached third and would have scored on Bender's long fly to left center after Schang had walked. So, really, Klem's error here almost cost the Mackmen a victory.

I believe the series will be ended Saturday, as the Athletics are now full of confidence and with only one man to play, Matty, who will have his best day, even with his great ability, to save the Athletics off the field of the Giants.

Opposed to Matty will be either McGraw or Plunk. Klem's probability that the veteran southpaw, Plunk, will be the man selected to try and clinch the world's championship, 1913.

I believe that sentiment will cause Manager Mack to send his outfielder southpaw into this game to attempt to win the series for the Athletics. He should happen to fail, the Athletics are almost sure to win. The only looked good for the Athletics, I don't believe the Giants will win. I don't believe the Giants will win. I don't believe the Giants will win.

"This May Be My Last World's Series Game," Says the "Old Master"

As for Friday's Game, He Attributes the Loss of It to Wasted Opportunities Because of Bad Judgment by Giant Players, and the "Breaks" in the Game Which Went Against McGraw's Team—Though at the Same Time He Doesn't Want to Sound Like Crying Over Spilled Milk. Says If Giant Pitchers Could Have Held Off Athletics Long Enough, the Giants Would Have Beaten Bender Easily

BY CHRISTY MATHEWSON

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 11.—Last night it looked as if the series of stories on the world's series was nearing its end. It is, however, except the members of the New York team. We still believe we have a chance, and I have no intention of putting "to be concluded" at the end of this story.

It has never been my habit to whine and complain about the "breaks" in baseball. I want to say that we lost a lot of opportunities in that battle Friday. But judgment on the part of the New York players and had "breaks" in the luck beat us and put us so far down on the series that nothing but a determined uphill fight today after they were six runs behind and only missed trying the series by an eyelash.

"Chief" Bender was pressed to the limit in these last two innings and in the ninth he was spinning the ball over with everything on it that he had. He had used bad judgment in pitching to some of our batters in the eighth, so the Athletics maintained, and his carelessness had nearly resulted in a tied score. In my opinion he did not use bad judgment. It was just a matter of the right side ready to slip over and let go. The wonderful Indian went through the last two innings on his nerve alone putting all that he had on the ball and applying

From the New York bench I could see him sitting between "Connie" Mack and Dave Davis while "Duke" Murphy and Eddie Collins swarmed around him, warning him against the grooves of our men who were to bat in the ninth inning. "Dor" Payne, the Athletics' trainer, was fanning him with a towel throughout the recess and wiping him with a sponge. The Indian went back and won on his own.

He could not have gone another inning. To my mind, the big, bad break we got in the eighth inning when we made our final rally. With the score 6 to 2 against us to left field. He was forced at second base a minute later, when Doyle drove a terrific grounder at Collins, who partly fell in fielding the ball, but who recovered in time to throw Herzog out at second base. Three or four feet either way and that ball would have been through for a clean hit. It was smashed square on the nose.

The important blow was the next one when Fletcher hit the ball at Bender as if it had been shot out of a cannon. Ordinarily a hit with this force behind it would bound off the pitcher and out of reach of the infielders or else miss him altogether, the twister coming to rest. This left the tying run on third base with two out and so upset the Athletics at the box while Captain Toney Murphy walked out from the bench and joined the crowd.

Two or three emergency pitchers an opportunity to run out to left field and begin to warm up. Bender was fighting for his life. Murray Jarman was in the box and the man who never boots three was in the box. Bender was fighting for his life. Murray Jarman was in the box and the man who never boots three was in the box. Bender was fighting for his life. Murray Jarman was in the box and the man who never boots three was in the box.

Then followed our big opportunity when Barry signaled solely to left to right. This left the tying run on third base with two out and so upset the Athletics at the box while Captain Toney Murphy walked out from the bench and joined the crowd.

Corley Saves Hurling Arm

ATHENS, Ga., Oct. 11.—The Red and Black squad is now minus a fine prospect, since Cunningham advised Otis Corley, Georgia's star pitcher this year, to quit football for fear he would injure his arm for the next season.

Corley's arm has hurt him quite a bit lately and during the preliminary practices, when the candidates were falling on the ball and tackling the dummy and blocking, Corley sprained his arm and shoulder, as Cunningham told him to leave off football at least for this year, and keep his arm in good shape for baseball season.

Corley was just beginning to show real good form at halfback when he stopped and he will be missed very much on Sanford field, but perhaps it is for the best. For Georgia depends a whole lot on him for the coming baseball season.

Georgia Men In Fine Shape

Over on Sanford field last night Cunningham has announced his weekly program which he will adhere to during the coming football season. It is as follows: Monday, working the normal out; Tuesday, scrimmage; Wednesday, scrimmage; Thursday and Friday, light signal work; Saturday, the game.

Cunningham outlines that a scrimmage is worse than a game on the men, when the first and second varieties are so nearly equal. He has his men in the pink of condition already. In speaking of this point, he stated that he could hardly see how they had come so far as practically no scrimmage work had been done. His main work is to teach them the plays and keep them from going stale.

Although several tentative picks have been made of the Georgia team by supporters, Cunningham has said nothing as yet as to the men he expects to play on his varsity eleven. However, the eleven which he has had working on the field all this week will probably carry the red and black colors during the rest of the season, with some minor changes.

Prep League Season Opens

The local preparatory school football league opens with a game at Piedmont park Saturday afternoon, when the Boys' High school meets the Thomas Frasier school.

The line-ups of the teams had not been announced Saturday morning as the showing of the numerous candidates for both teams has been so good that the coaches are in a quandary whom to start in the game.

Injuries have delayed havoc with some of the best men the Boys' High had. Arnold was hurt during practice and a few days later LeConte, who was also manager, was disabled in practice. "Archibald" Gans has been elected manager to succeed LeConte.

Uthan Tots Run World's Mark: 1:54 1-2

LEXINGTON, Ky., Oct. 11.—Uthan, the world's champion trotter owned by C. K. G. Billings, Thursday lowered the world's record for a mile to 1:54 1-2. Uthan set the previous record at 1:55 last year, the horse on both attempts against time being accompanied by a running mate.

Uthan was driven by Charles Tanner and was favored with a perfect track and beautiful weather conditions and took the full count in the sixth, when C. K. G. Billings, Thursday lowered the world's record for a mile to 1:54 1-2. Uthan set the previous record at 1:55 last year, the horse on both attempts against time being accompanied by a running mate.

Tech High Plays Heavy Room Team

The Tech High school eleven tackled a strong and heavy room Saturday afternoon, when they journeyed to home to play the Athletic club of that city.

This game is expected to show the nature of a practice affair, as the room eleven will be composed of several university stars and will outweigh the Tech eleven several pounds to the man. Fourteen men made the trip under the tutelage of Captain Parks.

Leach Cross Wins

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Leach Cross of this city, last night knocked out Young the champion pugilist with a 10-round decision.

Leach, a tanned blond, Brown received a severe punishment in the third round and took the full count in the sixth, when Cross brought over a right to the point of Leach's jaw. Cross and Brown were light weights.

Clemson Plays Alabama Team

CLEMSON COLLEGE, Oct. 11.—The Clemson "Tigers" left Friday morning for Tuscaloosa, Ala., where they met the University of Alabama team in Clemson's second game of the season.

The last night the Clemson men were hard to find this week to build up the weak line when they had three balls and two strikes on him. He lined one out over Shortstop Barry, however, who looked safe as it was hit very hard. The ball was so fast that it hit the ball off his nose. It was a magnificent catch. If that ball had gotten away it would have gone for two bases sure, and we probably would have had two runs right there. I am not saying he made a great catch, but it just goes to show what money players the Athletics are. They play that man could not make once out of his mouth. As it was, he played that man could not make once out of his mouth.

Glenn Gets Money

AUBURN, N. Y., Oct. 11.—Decisions were handed down today by the national board of the National Association of Professional Baseball leagues. Among the claims allowed were Harry Glenn against Nashville; George Weeder against Norfolk.

Among the claims disallowed were W. R. Caldwell against Mayville, Ky.; R. L. Stevenson against New Orleans; J. M. Reynolds against Beaumont; Ward Brown against Jackson, Miss.; M. O. Bridges against Clarksville, Tenn.

Tech Scrubs Play G. M. A.

What promises to be a fast and hard fought game will be played on Grand field Saturday afternoon, when the Tech scrubs will play the G. M. A. Military academy eleven. Tech varsity plays in the afternoon. The game will show the advantage of the opportunity to for the Tech team, which will not out weigh them. The game starts at 4 o'clock and a small admission fee will be charged.

SHERRARD, OLYMPIC STAR, STRUCK BY OPERATION

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Martin Sheridan, athlete of Olympic fame, last night to submit to an operation for a growth on his spine. He was kicked by a horse some years ago and to that injury are attributed severe pains in his back.

FOOLISH QUESTIONS—No. 2,468, 23c

MAY SEE HIS CHILD IF IT'S CLEAR AND WARM

Also, If He'll Give Her Nothing to Eat and No Rides in Autos

Saturday was "alimony day" in two divisions of the superior court, and many cases were disposed of.

In the case of Mrs. Lena Gray against Albert S. Gray, who fought over their five-year-old daughter, Mary Thelma, as well as alimony rights, Judge John T. Pendleton issued an order remarkable for its manifestly humorous character.

The custody of the child remains in the mother. The father, however, is granted the right to have it between the hours of 10 a. m. and 1 p. m. on the first and third Sundays in each month. If those days are clear and warm. While the child is in his care it shall be given nothing to eat and no rides in autos.

The mother's specifications were incorporated because the mother claimed that the child is in poor health and that the father cannot properly care for it.

"TOO MANY TOYS"

Both husband and wife were on the stand during the hearing of the case, and the husband complained that his wife's sister, Mrs. Walker Lovett, spoiled the child by giving it too many toys. He admitted a row with his wife because a $100 doll was purchased for the little girl. "It was too much money to pay for a doll," he said.

Mrs. Gray was awarded $30 per month alimony, and her husband was ordered to pay the fee of Attorneys Moore & Branch, who represent her.

In Judge Bell's division of the court for the afternoon, a husband having to pay for two suits brought against him was presented. Mrs. Rosa Gossett brought suit against Robert A. Gossett last year, but in May of this year they were reconciled and the suit was withdrawn. The husband then paid a fee of $10 to his wife's attorneys. They lived together only a few days, when there was another separation and a new suit was filed. The alimony portion of this second suit was heard Saturday and Judge Bell ordered the husband to pay his wife $50 per month alimony and to pay Attorneys Moore & Branch $50 for bringing her suit. His attorney objected to the out-of-pocket cost getting fees in both cases, but Judge Bell held that they were entitled to them.

THIRTY-EIGHT DAYS IN JAIL

H. A. Winkler, an eighteen-year-old husband, who has spent the last thirty-eight days in jail for contempt of court for refusing to pay alimony to his young wife, who has a tiny baby, was again arraigned in court, and released by Judge Bell, after he had made a bond not to leave the state and had promised to get a job and pay for the support of his wife and baby.

Judge Pendleton in the alimony cases before him ordered that the money be paid each month to the attorneys of the wife, as alimony cases are now so numerous that it takes extra clerks of the court to look after the payments.

Many Unique Incidents Of Interest to Masons Given in Directory

ROME, Ga., Oct. 11.—An interesting contribution to Masonic literature is the directory of Cherokee Lodge, No. 46, which has just been issued from the press. The lodge was instituted in 1848 under the name of Comus Lodge, but upon December 22, 1848, the name was changed to Cherokee Lodge.

The lodge has furnished two grand masters to the state of Georgia, the late J. L. Wright, who occupied the chair in 1881 and 1882, and Judge Max Meyer, who was grand master from 1908 to 1909. The only living past master of the lodge is T. W. Alexander, father of Hopper Alexander, of Atlanta, who was eighty-one years of age on September 1. The only living charter member of the lodge is Paul L. Dye, who is now in his ninetieth year.

The record for longest Masonic service is held by the secretary of the lodge, R. H. West, who has been continuously since 1873 and has thus rounded out more than forty years of service.

So Thoughtful

Wife—What time did you get home last night?
 Husband—Every thirty minutes.
 Wife—All night?
 Husband—No, I went to bed at 10 o'clock and I'm not to disturb you.

(From Judge.)

The impulse to go to bed with one's wife is in favor of the person who forgets to do so.

Atlanta Society Woman Tells Divorce Court She Smokes, Drinks, Swears

Mrs. Grace Macy Keefe Is Frankness Itself When Testifying in Her Suit for Alimony as to Her Own Habits

Mrs. Grace Macy Keefe, formerly well known as a society woman, was Frankness itself, which she testified Saturday morning about her own habits and character, during the hearing of her suit against David H. Keefe for alimony and attorney's fees.

She swore, she drank, and she smoked cigarettes, she told the court quickly and frankly when counsel for her husband asked the questions.

Regarding swearing, she talked to the court most interestingly.

"Wearing is common place, nearly everybody does it," she said.

"And besides," she explained, "there is no harm in swearing at anybody or anything. The Bible itself says only that you must not swear by anything. It says nothing about swearing at people."

Mrs. Keefe declared, however, that she didn't swear at her husband except when he started swearing at her. "He set the fashion," she said.

She admitted that her son, Jack Macy, whose fight with his stepfather at the Piedmont Driving club some weeks ago caused a sensation, had also sworn at Keefe in her presence.

She did admit to her husband, she said, that she had sworn at him from time to time.

As to drinking, Mrs. Keefe declared that she had always had wine on her table, but was never intoxicated except when her husband brought home cocktails, which were done, she formed the cigarette habit, she said, through her association with Keefe.

Jack Macy, 18-year-old son of the wife by former marriage, was the only witness introduced at the hearing for Mrs. Keefe's testimony.

Many broken details of the life of the Keefers in Atlanta, New York and Connecticut were interspersed in the testimony, and Mrs. Keefe was constantly interrupted in her statement by her attorney, Victor Lamar Smith, by Attorney Rosser and by Judge George L. Bell, who heard the case because of statements they were inadmissible as evidence.

During the testimony it developed that Keefe has recently declared that he had disposed of his interest in his grandfather's estate for $45,000, which he used in paying debts. Now he has practically nothing, he asserted.

Mrs. Keefe has also recently disposed of property, which when rented brings $2,250 per year. She gave the property to a sister to be used for her daughter's education, she said.

Mrs. Keefe declared that her equity in the home on West Fourteenth street and an apartment house on Piedmont avenue amounts to only about $18,500. She declared that she has practically supported Keefe and her children since their marriage in 1906, from the estate of her first husband.

Judge Bell, however, held that she required at least $280 to support her in the manner in which she lived with Keefe.

BARTLETT AND WOUDELL CLASH ON HOUSE FLOOR

Georgia Congressman Makes Wyoming Representative Retract Word "Lie"

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.—He house had a moment of excitement today when the unparliamentary word "lie" figured in the debate. Representative Mondell, of Wyoming, said that the position taken by Representative Bartlett, of Georgia, as to commerce court legislation "gave the lie to his protestations."

Mr. Bartlett jumped to his feet with a demand that Mr. Mondell withdraw the word "lie."

"Oh, I am not excited," shouted Mr. Bartlett to his colleagues who gathered about him. "I don't intend to break any rules of the house."

Mr. Mondell admitted that his choice had been unfortunate, but insisted that Mr. Bartlett's attitude did not accord with his statement in regard to certain legislation. Mr. Bartlett accepted this form of criticism and the incident was closed.

Big Wild Cat Killed In Heart of Rome, Ga.

ROME, Ga., Oct. 11.—Summoned by frightened negroes to a vacant house in the center of the city, Rome policemen found a big wildcat hiding in the corner of a darkened room. A shotgun was borrowed, and the wildcat was killed. His presence in the heart of town is a mystery, but he had evidently been here for some days, as people in that section have been missing chickens from their poultry yards for the past week.

It is supposed that the wildcat was driven down from the neighboring mountains by hunger.

BARRY PROBES ROBBERY OF FLORIDA POSTOFFICE

Chief Inspector R. E. Barry sent a man to Eden, Fla., Saturday to investigate the robbery of the postoffice at that place.

The postmaster telegraphed that the office had been broken into and stated that he was holding two boys on suspicion. He asked for an inspector to investigate the robbery, but gave no further details.

Bad Pains

Women suffer, at times, from bad pains, for which there seems to be no relief. At times the pains are so severe that sufferers resort to narcotic drugs, with possible permanent serious results. A better way is to take a thorough treatment with Cardui, as this medicine has been found to act in a specific way on the womanly organs and by building up their strength and "tonicity" has restored many thousands of weak, ailing women to health.

Cardui contains no noxious drugs but only mildly tonic, purely vegetable ingredients which cannot possibly harm you and which may be just the help that your system needs.

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Willie Belle Engbretsen, of Little Bayou, Pensacola, Florida, writes: "At times my head would swim and I suffered from a dull aching all the time; my heart pained me and I suffered from sick stomach, so that I could not eat. My whole body would swell, the pain in my kidneys would almost kill me. I would have hot flashes and burned all over like fire. I ached all over and had bad pains in my abdomen and side and almost lost the use of my right arm. I suffered from these and other womanly ailments, for about fourteen years, till at last I began to take Cardui, the woman's tonic, and now I feel O. K. I don't feel sore all over, I can eat anything and go anywhere. After the first bottle I felt better. I kept on taking Cardui and now I feel like a different person."

Bad Pains

Women suffer, at times, from bad pains, for which there seems to be no relief. At times the pains are so severe that sufferers resort to narcotic drugs, with possible permanent serious results. A better way is to take a thorough treatment with Cardui, as this medicine has been found to act in a specific way on the womanly organs and by building up their strength and "tonicity" has restored many thousands of weak, ailing women to health.

Cardui contains no noxious drugs but only mildly tonic, purely vegetable ingredients which cannot possibly harm you and which may be just the help that your system needs.

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Willie Belle Engbretsen, of Little Bayou, Pensacola, Florida, writes: "At times my head would swim and I suffered from a dull aching all the time; my heart pained me and I suffered from sick stomach, so that I could not eat. My whole body would swell, the pain in my kidneys would almost kill me. I would have hot flashes and burned all over like fire.
